Missoula Bird Sanctuary
Harbors Many Songsters; 25 Species Are Natives

(BY CORA L. VAN DEUSEN)

Missoula, Montana, one of the queerest little towns you ever saw, is the home of a lovely bird sanctuary. It has been established for the past five years by the Missoula Bird Club. This is the only bird sanctuary in Montana, and it is the home of many songsters, including many species native to the state.

MISSOULA IS THE HOME OF A BIRD SANCTUARY

The Missoula Bird Club, which was established in 1919, is the only bird sanctuary in the state. The club has been very successful in preserving the birds, and the sanctuary has become a popular place for bird-watching.
